

Sermon Notes

Realistic peace in a troubled and dangerous world

Psalm 91

Who are the promises for? These promises are ours in Christ

What are the promises? You may suffer but ultimately no harm will come to you

How do we live in light of these promises?

- Trust in Jesus
- Be encouraged
- Comfort others
- Be fearless
- Remember where you live

Question for reflection/discussion:

In what aspects of your life at the moment do you most need the comfort of these promises?

There has been a great new song written recently based on Psalm 91 which you might find helpful in reflecting on the Psalm:
