

Sermon Notes

He Entrusted Himself to God who Judges Justly

1 Samuel 24-26

Intro: God gave us a long, long, preparation for advent!

1. God's chosen king suffers unjustly, but he refuses to repay evil for evil, trusting God to vindicate him (ch 24)

... Like Jesus Christ (but so much more!)

2. God's chosen king suffers unjustly AGAIN, but he STILL refuses to repay evil for evil, trusting God to vindicate him! (ch 26)

...Like Jesus Christ (but so much more!)

3. Enduring unjust treatment is very very hard, and but for the providential restraint of others, David would have blown it (ch 25)

...Unlike Jesus Christ (and so much more!)

What it means for us:

1. Appreciate our extraordinary suffering saviour-king (1 Peter 2:23)
2. Follow his example when unfairly treated today (1 Peter 2:21)

Q for Zoom: How does 1 Sam 24-26 help us appreciate Jesus more?
